

Seasonal Sous Chef required for 2 Rosette property in the highlands

Quality Link recruitment is proud to be representing this small but luxurious hotel in the highlands of Scotland. Set in tranquil surrounding with superb views from every part of the hotel.

This Sous Chef role will suit an experienced chef that enjoys living and working in a remote location. This is an excellent opportunity to concentrate on your career and establish yourself as a 2 Rosette Sous Chef, you will be working for one of Scotland's up and coming Head Chefs that has not only extensive rosette experience but Michelin experience under Scotland's most decorated Chef.

The Sous Chef role will be to liaise with the Front of House team on a day to day basis as well as looking after the junior members of the brigade in the kitchen. Under the guidance of the Head Chef you will be given an excellent opportunity in this brigade to work on your technique and flavours changing the menu with the Head Chef as and when the seasons change. All produce is locally sourced and prepared on site!!!

The Sous Chef role comes with a great package including accommodation with in the hotel and an above average salary for the position.

For further information on this Sous Chef position please apply with a current CV on line to robert.montgomery@quality-link.co.uk or call for more information on 0141 2258540.