

Temporary Chefs required for multiple bookings – Edinburgh

One of Quality Links biggest and best clients requires chefs of all levels to work on various sites including their production unit. The client has contracts that range from fine dining to large buffet banquets.

If you are a trained professional and are either looking for on going temporary work or extra hours on your days off then we want to hear from you as soon as possible to register.

The position pays hourly and is mainly day shifts (8 – 5) in units in the city centre and further a field. You are required to bring your own whites, knives and safety shoes that must be clean and presentable for their high end clients.

Quality Link recruitment leads by example and have consultants that are professionally trained in the hospitality market. The consultants are able to give you in-depth information on the contracts on offer.

For further information on these assignments or if you would like to discuss the options in either temporary or permanent position please send an up to date CV to robert.montgomery@quality-link.co.uk or telephone the office on 0141 2258540.
