

Head Chef required west coast Scotland - £32k DOE

One of Quality Links clients in recruiting for a Head Chef to lead and run a busy kitchen and committed brigade, the hotel is set in a wonderful location with stunning views of the coast line of Scotland.

The Head Chef role is available from early October 2011.

The ideal Head Chef taking this role will be an excellent all rounder in the kitchen and be able to demonstrate loyalty and growth for previous employers. You will be able to work in a pressured environment keeping control of the kitchen brigade and the produce leaving the pass.

The restaurant is capable of catering for up to 200 covers each service and has a brigade of up to 6 chefs during the season.

The Head Chef vacancy comes with a great package including salary, company benefits and discounts also the role comes with great accommodation for the right Chef.

For further information on this great Head Chef role then please apply on line with an up to date CV.

Due to the high volume of applicants, only Head Chefs with the clients stipulated experience will be contacted about the position.