

Senior Chef De Partie – Glasgow

Quality Link recruitment are sourcing for a client in the city centre that require a Chef De Partie that is able to hit the ground running on their sauce and grill section. A branded operation that still allows chefs to express themselves on day to day specials and seasonally changing menus

The ideal Chef De Partie will have excellent experience in meat and fish preparation and be able to demonstrate loyalty and commitment to previous employers. A natural flair in the kitchen working with fresh seasonal produce is something the Head Chef is looking for.

The Chef De Partie position comes with an above average salary based on 48 hour working week over 5 days. Chef whites are supplied and laundered for the brigade.

For further information on this Chef De Partie position please apply online or telephone the Quality Link office on 0141 225 8540.